knife after he "became enraged due to the victim not placing cheese on his hoagie roll correctly," according to a eyewitness account.

Now Faraci's name has surfaced in connection with the shooting, as he was arrested for possession of a firearm. However, the driver's license was suspended for six months anyway, he or she can write a note with the prescription which states that the driver is allowed to drive.